

Terms & Conditions

Applicability

All sales, supplies and services are covered under the following Terms & Conditions. These conditions prevail over those of the buyers. Purchasing goods on our website implies the acceptance of these conditions.

Palainco

"Palainco" refers to Palainco V.O.F., registered in the Trade Register of the Chamber of Commerce in Rotterdam, with number 65061667.

Offer and responsibilities

Palainco collects and sells vintage (pre-owned) design items from the twentieth century.

- We do not claim that all objects are in mint condition, so please keep in mind that signs of aging and use might be visible.
- The description on the website in combination with the photographs should be suitably detailed to evaluate the products adequately. Slight deviations between what is described and/or depicted and the actual characteristics of the ordered product (e.g. differences in colour, due to settings of your computer screen or resolution) may occur.
- Therefore we ask customers to inspect the pictures, read the condition report and in case of uncertainty contact us by email and request additional photos or information regarding an item of interest.
- Payment of the product implies the approval of the state of the item, as described and shown on the website and/or illustrated in additional communication.
- To qualify the condition of the products Palainco uses the following categories: 'mint', 'excellent', 'very good' and 'good'. Only in exceptional cases, regarding very rare pieces of design, we offer products of which the condition could be considered 'average' or 'poor'.
- Our products are cleaned and checked for reliability and safety. Electrical wiring will be replaced if required. Palainco also sells lighting with original wiring, which might not be compliant with your local standards. If in doubt, Palainco recommends consulting a licensed electrician before use.

The margin scheme is indicated on the invoice as “margin scheme – second hand goods”, the amount is not mentioned separately on the website nor on the invoice. The VAT on our items is therefore not deductible.

Orders paid through PayPal are raised with 3.4% cost over the total order and shipping costs. All orders paid by credit card are raised with 1.8% cost over the total order and shipping costs for customers in Europe and 2.8% for customers outside of Europe. These are the same costs PayPal respectively the credit card companies charge us for the acceptance of the payment.

Following a successful examination, the invoiced amount is automatically and immediately debited. Once the transaction is completed, we process your order within the specified delivery time.
